

PHC Prayer Requests – Nov 24 to Dec 8, 2025

J-14 year old who is pregnant. Planning on keeping her baby! pray for strength, encourage and support

Gospel shared with L during intake

A-foster baby who is going into her adoptive mom at the end of the week. Pray for baby A, that she will adjust and bond with the adoptive mom. Pray for comfort and strength for her foster mom who loved and nurtured her for almost an entire year.

J- in need for prayer to pass her exam

S shared with us that she had an abortion in September and regrets it. There was pressure from a family member to abort her baby.

J-came in for a pregnancy test, was negative. Pray that she will be able to create guardrails so she doesn't get herself in an unwanted pregnancy

B is in school as a PSW-asked for prayer that she will be successful and find a job. Looking for a local church

S-going to court for full custody for her baby

A-husband looking for work

P-baby had surgery at sick kids, she's had to go back due to infection. Baby not eating only drinking formula. Pray for complete healing girl 1-4 year old clothing

4-5 T pull ups

Prayer for all our moms that are in college/university that are finishing their semester and will be going into exam week.

S-back with her partner, in counseling

Praise for healing our volunteer J who is happy to be back at our Ajax centre again!

C's ex boyfriend was abusive to her and there is a restraining order against him. She is concerned that he is calling her and knows where she lives. Please pray for protection on her and her children.

T is very thankful for all the help and support she has been given from us as she is new to the country.

A-prayer for her anxiety. Family living in a very small apartment with no bedrooms. Husband looking for work but has a heart condition due to covid shot. Their teenage daughter is struggling with anxiety and losing weight because of lack of food.

Thank you to all the churches who donated items for our client Christmas gift bags! We are excited to bless our clients over the next 2 weeks and we appreciate your generosity. Pray that we will have meaningful conversations about the true meaning of Christmas over this time.

Our last BOLD class on Dec. 9. Thankful for being able to speak in 20 classes this semester and pray that God will use us in the high schools again in 2026.

M and K are new to the country, have a newborn and 2 other young children. He is working night shifts, she is going to school and working part time. They are so thankful for the support they get from us. He asked for prayers for his family.

R is a mom looking for a job. Her husband works but is finding it difficult to provide for their 3 children.

H-has twins, 5 months old. One of her twins was born with a cyst on one of his lungs. He is having surgery to remove it very soon.